(2023)

The Training Program of Public Administration for Singapore Civil Servants

【Organizer】

School of International Relations and Public Affairs, Fudan University

No.(2009) 47 Documents jointly released by Organization Department of the CPC Central Committee and Ministry of Education states that Fudan University, together with other 12 universities, is chosen as the first national cadre education and training base. In response to the greater demand from government sectors, international organizations and social public institutions, the foundation of the professional training department at School of International Relations and Public Affairs devotes to national talent cultivation and undertakes the mission of establishing national lifelong education system and learning-oriented society. With the discipline advantage and training demands for cadres, we strive to make the training targeted and effective.

We have recently established long-term cooperation with State Administration of Civil Service, and government sectors in Shanghai, Zhejiang, Shandong, Yunnan, etc..

In partnership with world-famous universities, we introduce advanced management ideas and teaching methods. With practical experience of Chinese society and a strong faculty, we have set up characteristic multi-level and multidiscipline training programs with topics ranging from public management and governance, business management, fiscal taxation, human resources, urban planning to educational administration.
